

Creating Your First Pull Request

---

Lisa Walkosz-Migliacio

SOFTWARE ENGINEER

@MissFacetious www.evilisa.com

Overview

Create Pull Request

- Create branch
- Add changes to code in editor
- Commit code
- Create Pull Request
  - Fill out description
  - Fill out reviewer, assignee, labels
  - Save as draft
  - Open request

The Pull Request

Create a new branch

---

Checkout

Create a new branch
for your changed files.

Checkout a branch

```
> git checkout -b features/whats-new
```

Demo

Create a new branch

Commit Code

---

Commit

Commit the changed
files to your branch.

Demo

Commit some code

Checkout a branch

```
> git add files-to-add
```

```
> git commit -m "files I'm adding"
```

Open a Pull Request

---

Demo

Fill in description

Demo

Fill In reviewers, assignees, labels, etc

Getting Started with GitHub Actions

Demo

Save as draft, and then eventually submit

Let's Review What We Did

Summary

Created a Pull Request

- Created branch
- Added changes to code in editor
- Committed code
- Created Pull Request
  - Filled out the form
  - Saved as draft
  - Finally submitted

